Mrs. Grace L. Terry

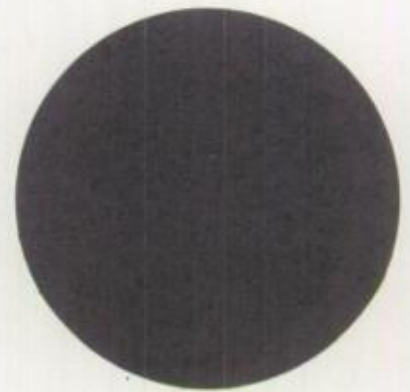

DEDICATION

To a person who is kind,
 To a person who is understanding,
 To a person who has opened greater vistas to us,
 To a person who has pointed the way to coping with the vicissitudes of life,
 To a person who merits a more resounding "thank you" than can swell from the throats of all those whom she has guided,
 To a challenging leader,
 To an edifying teacher,
 To an untiring worker,
 To a scholar . . .
 To Mrs. Grace L. Terry, we dedicate not only this book but also a special place in our memories.

WILLIAM S. CARLSON, President of the University,
A.B., M.S., Ph.D., LL.D., D.Sc.

I am most happy to add my congratulations to those of your college administrators and faculty. Your years here have, I am sure, been happy and fruitful ones. You now join thousands of alumni of State University.

I know that you are aware that your education has been made possible through the generosity of the people of New York State. Your obligation to them is to serve your state and community usefully, as intelligent, responsible citizens. An important service, of course, is to provide leadership in informing the people of the program and needs of State University. The most important contribution will be your teaching in the schools of the state.

It is my earnest hope that you will grow in wisdom and happiness and that you will prosper always.

WILLIAM S. CARLSON, President
State University of New York

December 12, 1956

To the Class of 1957:

You are now ready to teach, and I am sure that you will be good teachers. By following the precepts and calling upon the background of liberal and professional studies that you have received here, you can be nothing else but good teachers. We are proud to have you as graduates, represent the college.

As a member of the teaching profession, you will be warmly received in the community in which you go to serve and not without reason. Millions of parents entrust their children to the care of men and women such as you with confidence simply because they are members of the teaching profession. You are now in a position to increase this respect for the profession, and I am sure that you will. God bless you.

TO THE CLASS OF 1957—

This year marks the beginning of a new era for our college since we are now all together on the new campus. We can look forward to the future growth and development of this new location. Traditions will doubtless grow up around us and many of them will have their roots in the ideas, hopes and aspirations of your class. Even after graduation you can contribute to the building of a splendid Potsdam tradition through your interest in and devotion to the teaching profession. Your future — intentionally or not — will reflect upon your college.

We look forward to our new relationship with you — our alumni!

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

"Whereas we, the students of State University Teachers College, Potsdam, of the State of New York, desire to share individually and collectively a responsibility for the conduct of our college life and thus promote habits of loyalty and self-discipline, we do hereby organize ourselves into an association." And so with this Preamble, the Constitution of S.G.A. came into being.

Student Government is a well known organization on campus. It bears a striking resemblance to that of the Congress of our country. The judicial branch might be said to consist of Women's and Men's Student Councils which aid in regulating student activities. All students of Potsdam State are members and have a voice in their government by way of membership on standing committees and attendance at meetings.

S.G.A. strives to fulfill its purposes: "... to bring about such a degree of cooperation between the students, and the acceptance of responsibility of the students, and their organizations, as will maintain and uphold the highest standards of college life, and support impartially and unfailingly the provisions made by Student Government Association.

COLLEGE UNION BOARD

Consistently College Union Board endeavors to make student life more pleasant. Current magazines, cards and games are provided at the Student Union. To meet the student need for a "coffee break" during test week, evening study hours were set up in the Union dining hall and free coffee was provided.

College Union Board also adds to the social life on campus by sponsoring annual Halloween and Christmas parties. In cooperation with Clarkson College, jam sessions are held every Friday afternoon, alternating between Lewis House and the College Union. To foster interest in current news topics, the Board sponsors faculty led discussions. A new atmosphere pervades the Union Snack Bar since its redecoration including the addition of sketches based on college life. Dancing in the snack bar is also encouraged.

Continuing its interest and participation in the activities of the Association of College Unions, the Board sends delegates to each annual conference. This year's exchange of ideas was held at Cornell from which the delegates returned with ideas to further enrich Union activities.

ASSEMBLY CONCERT COMMITTEE

Consisting of five members from each class, Assembly Concert Committee is guided by faculty advisors, Mr. Harry Phillips and Miss Helen King.

The committee plans school assemblies and concerts a year previous to the proposed performances. Their responsibilities include making arrangements for the performers regarding props, over-night accommodations, stage hands, and many miscellaneous details that have to be checked and rechecked before the performers arrive.

This year's assembly policy has decreased the number of assemblies in hopes that fewer dates to fill would result in better assemblies.

Highlights of the '56-'57 concert season have been lecturer Norman Cousins, the film version of Menotti's "The Medium," the Paris Ballet of Lyette D'Arsonval, "Hamlet" as done by the Dublin Players, the National Symphony Orchestra and the Rochester Woodwind Quartet.

Seated: A. Le Baron, B. Segman, J. Selleck, Y. Ornt, C. Rylance, R. Joyce, H. King, E. Sing. Standing: R. Thomas, D. Holtz,

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Finance Committee, a sub-committee of the Student Government Association, is composed of twenty one members; five from each class and the treasurer of S.G.A., who holds an honorary position. A committee chairman is elected each spring from the membership.

This committee handles all of the students' money. At their weekly meetings, they sign all the disbursing orders for student money and they check the books of the treasurers of the various student organizations to make sure they are kept correct and up to date. It is this committee which prepares and discusses the budget before it is presented to the student body for a vote of acceptance. With the treasurer of S.G.A., they handle all hospitalization and fire insurance.

During the first semester of each year, Finance Committee awards three scholarships of three hundred dollars each on the basis of the financial need of the applicants. Because of the nature of this scholarship, the winners' names are never published.

Dr. Barrington serves as faculty advisor to the committee.

ELECTION COMMITTEE

How many times have you cast your vote in a P.S.T.C. election? The machinery of democracy in our college is that of the Election Committee.

The planning, execution and follow-through on all Student Government elections are its responsibility necessitating scheduling elections, distributing ballots, and counting votes.

The prime job of the Committee is the election of freshman officers.

Due to the difficulties inherent in elections in a new class, new plans for freshman elections were tried this year and further suggestions are being considered.

Consisting of five members from each class, elected as are all standing committee members, the Election Committee functions with the help of Dr. Thomas Barrington.

Art Association is an organization for everyone interested in the arts with the purpose of expanding their interest, knowledge and appreciation in art.

Meetings are held at Dr. Garner's home on the first Monday evening of each month for informal student-faculty discussions.

Workshops are held periodically, giving the members an opportunity to work with the various art mediums. The Annual Art Conference at the Museum of Modern Art in New York City highlights the year's activities.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

International Relations Club is an honorary social studies organization. Realizing the importance of a knowledge of our country's international affairs, and feeling the need of a systematic study of the problems which are constantly confronting the American people, the purpose of IRC is to discuss national and world problems. In doing this the members of the Club believe they will be better able to take an intelligent and effective part in forwarding the interests of our community and country.

This year International Relations Club held a presidential mock election on the Potsdam campus. Barbara McMahon, this year's president, was assisted by Carmen Illidge, vice president.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

This year the Association for Childhood Education, under the leadership of President Claire Dyckman and advisors Mrs. Welch and Miss Ramsdell, has added many activities to its long list of accomplishments. During second semester, the members of ACE participated in a Saturday morning children's reading program in the Potsdam Library. Here they helped several Campus School children develop an interest in reading through such things as reading stories and poems to them and showing them slides. Another service project of ACE was preparing scrapbooks for hospitalized children. To help themselves become better teachers, the members of ACE worked on such teaching aids as question boards and an association file. During first semester they heard Dr. Beeler and Mr. Johnson speak on elementary education. Sending two delegates to an April ACE national conference in Schenectady was another activity of the organization during 1956-57.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Able leadership proved its worth in the upsurge of F.T.A. activities this year. Under the guidance of Mary Livingston, president, and Dr. George Jeffers, advisor, the group included in its program a variety of activities.

Besides sending delegates to the House of Delegates meeting in Buffalo, F.T.A. sponsored a workshop for high school students interested in forming F.T.A. chapters, heard Dr. Franklin T. Mathewson speak on "What to Look For When Applying For A Teaching Position," held a panel discussion on secondary school programs, caroled at Christmas, set up a library corner where educational materials received by the chapter are located, and showed the film "A Desk For Billie."

As the undergraduate elementary professional organization, it has served its members well.

PIONEER

It has been quite a year! We've seen many changes on our campus and here is our contribution, the 1957 Pioneer. As you leaf through this yearbook you'll find that it's a bigger book with a complete facelifting job; color has been added and the year's events are all here for future refresher courses in collegiate memories.

The rugged road of creation, layouts, writeups, missing pictures and so on has been smoothed out by the Board, Julie Eisenstein, editor-in-chief; Diana Rogger, art editor; Maria DeJulio, literary editor; Sue Fenton, photography editor; Betty Foster, senior editor; Sue Lester, typing editor; Carmen Illidge and Dorothy Waterstreet, Co-Crane editors; and Joe Sce, business editor. A unanimous Board "thank you" goes to Mr. James Warwick, our advisor, who knew just when to wield the whip and was always ready to contribute his facile and imaginative talents or a word of encouragement.

So without further words, it's out of our hands and into yours; the 1957 Pioneer!

RACQUETTE

Since 1927, the Racquette has been our undergraduate newspaper. Catering to student interest in college news, the Racquette gives a weekly review of campus activities. Other features added to entertain and inform the reader are a summary of world news events, "The Tatler"—an informal news column, "Collegiate Highlights"—containing bits of interest from other college publications, "Student Views" and staff editorials.

The Racquette is supported by the Student Government and an income from local and national advertising. Under the editorship of Robert Smith and Susan Lester, the Racquette has successfully completed another year of presenting campus news and views.

REVIEW

The college literary and art magazine, "The Review," contains original student works including essays, poetry, short stories, and reproductions of outstanding art work. The magazine originated only a few years ago, but even so it received a first prize for the best college publication of its type at a Pi Delta Epsilon Conference in Colorado last Spring. Don Holtz, this year's editor, hopes to maintain this high standard.

Staff: J. Brophy, J. Murphy, D. Holtz, E. Hutchison, K. Varco, S. Sill, V. Johnson.

ICE CARNIVAL

This was the year that our tickets were passports to a whirlwind trip "Around the World in Ice."

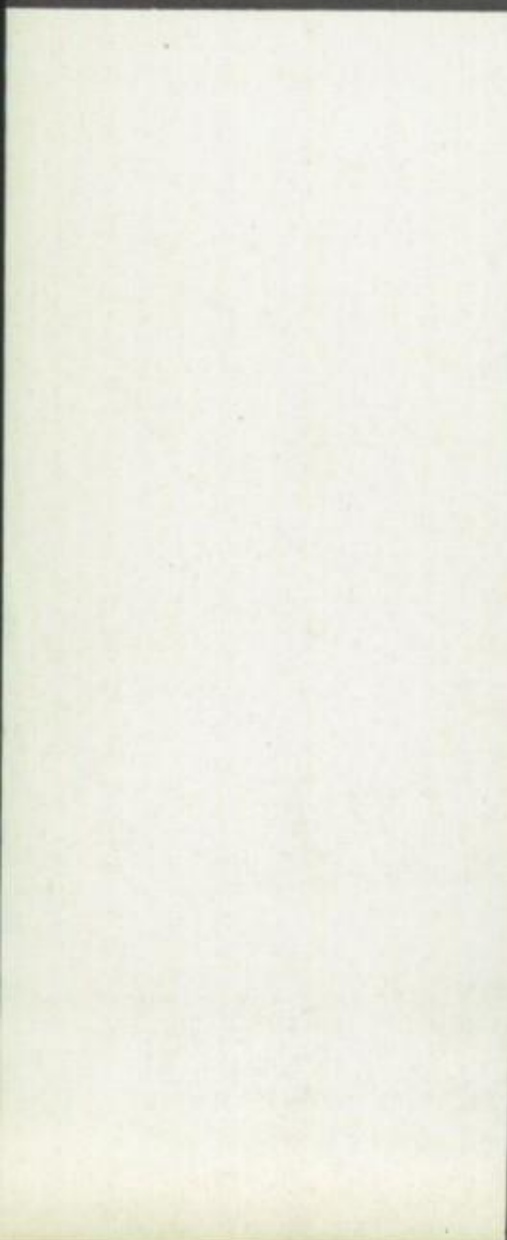

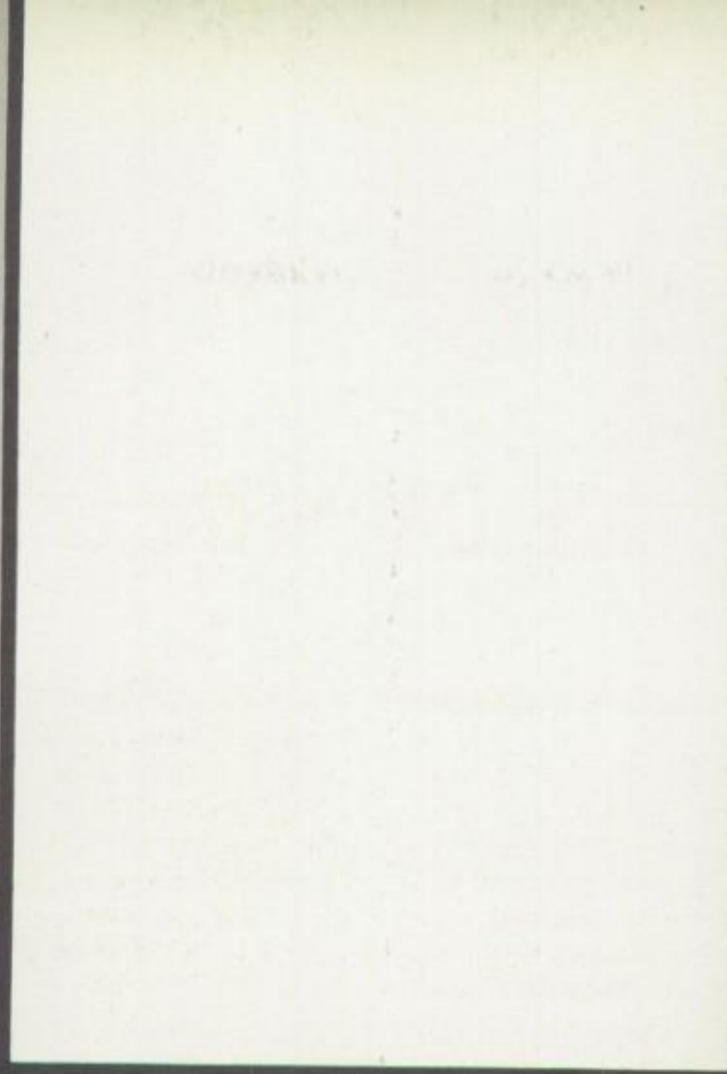

Wednesday night, following a roof-raising Dixieland concert by the Salt City Five, a torchlit parade made its way to Old Main for the coronation of the 1957 Ice Carnival's King and Queen, Susan Rickmyre of Alpha Delta and Bruce Wolff of Theta Chi. Stunt night and its exotic costumes, music, lights, thrills, and laughs constituted our stopovers at various points on the globe. Opposite climates took first places — Ago's "Birds of Paradise" and Lambda's "Penguins at the Poles."

Saturday morning's activities were centered at the Clarkson Arena for the spills and chills of the skating races; singles, relays, and mildly hysterical obstacle races, the winners of the latter being rewarded with silvered "hockey skate" trophies.

As a fitting climax for the gala celebration, we danced at the "Continental Interlude" aided by the foot-moving music of Claude Thornhill and his orchestra.

Into our mental archives goes the 1957 carnival, its memories well worth the careful filing.

CHEERLEADERS

PEP BAND

The Pep Band was organized in 1948 and is sponsored by the Athletic Committee. However, this year it was taken over by the Crane Department. The band played for all the night home games and the Saturday afternoon games, the lively music adding the sporty touch needed at the intermission.

Holmes, T. Wallace, R. Kowalick, J. Sharlow, R. Blake.

Utilizing a man for man defense and a fast breaking, screening and passing offense, the 1957 basketball squad, under the aegis of Coach Molnar, compiled a record of 8 wins, 10 losses. Two close games were lost to traditional rivals, Plattsburgh State, while the team registered its most impressive wins in the Oneonta State and Plattsburgh

Air Force Base home games.

Playmaker on the starting five of Holmes, Jay, Mullin, Lockwood, and Sharlow, was Ray Holmes with Vince Jay providing needed height and Jack Sharlow prining to be the outstanding freshman prospect.

BASKETBALL

BASEBALL

Potsdam's baseball team enters its 1957 season riding the crest of the 1956 season, the best in college history, with 10 wins and 1 loss. Lost via the graduation route were Arnie Dunn, Jack Dunn, and Ron MacLennon, but the nucleus of the vets are back — Bob Renino, Ray Holmes, Bill Cunningham, Bob LaRoque, Bob Kowalick, and a four game winner, pitcher Frank LaRose. Coach Molnar is also counting on some promising freshmen to fill the roster. Opening with Utica College, the schedule includes traditional rivals Plattsburgh and Albany State, and new to the schedule, Siena College.

Back row: H. Lehmann, B. Cunningham, D. Sleeper, T. McLean, B. Brown, J. Dunn, F. LaRose, J. Carey: Front row: R. Holmes, R. LaRocque, A. Dunn, R. Renino, C. Kuchay, R. Kowalick, R. McLennon, J. Smith.

TENNIS

Tennis, a comparatively new sport on the campus scene, started informally in 1954, and is beginning its fourth season of intercollegiate competition.

The cumulative record, of which Coach Ken Gant can be quite proud, stood at 8 wins and 5 losses over a three year period. So far there has not been a season with a percentage lower than .500.

Veterans Ed Bowman, Bruce Hull, and Cal Pedersen will be joined this year by sophomore squad members Joe Sce, Tom Aceto and Don Marshall and whatever freshmen qualify. The proposed schedule includes Siena College, Utica College, Rochester Tech, and Saint Michael's of Vermont.

CRANE

CRANE CHORUS

Under the able conducting of Dr. Helen Hosmer, Crane Chorus has once again sung itself through a memorable and a successful year.

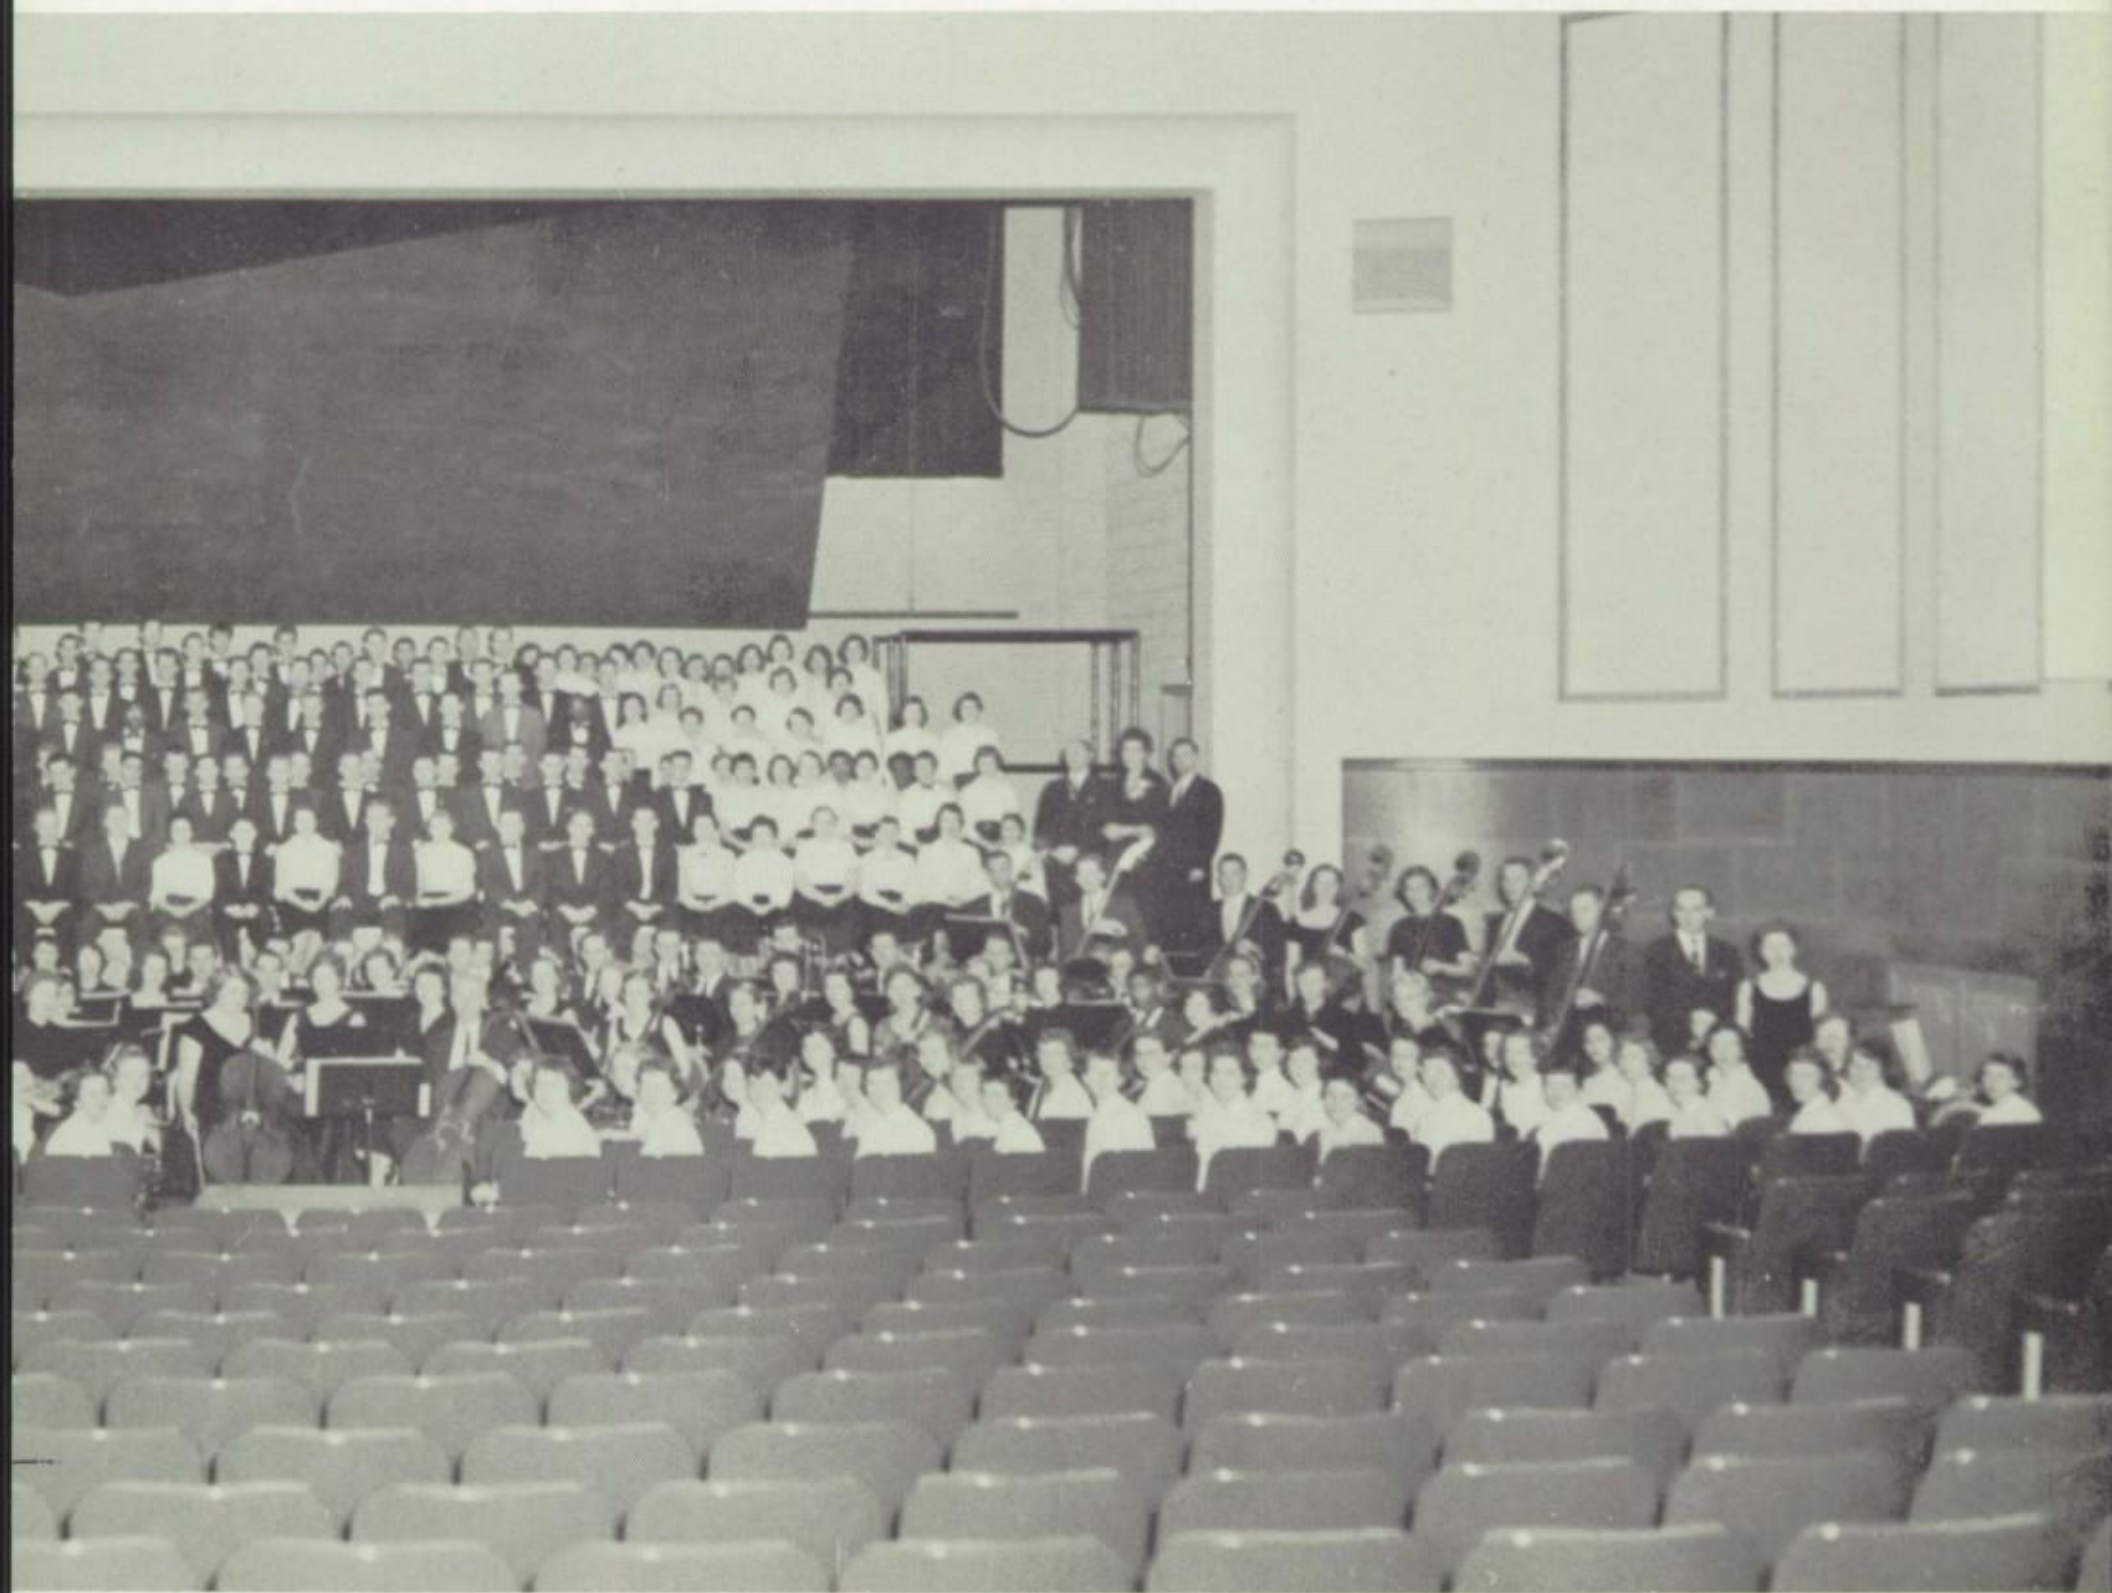

The Christmas concert on December 9 consisted of a most interesting and challenging work, "King David," by Honegger. Besides the choral singing, the work called for a narrator, performed by Mr. Ralph Wakefield; a boy soprano, sung by Alan Crabb; and the witch of Endor, spoken by Miss Elsie Donnelly.

After the Christmas concert the chorus experimented with two numbers by Bach—the "Sing Ye To The Lord" and the "Mass in B Minor." These were conducted by Dr. Hosmer, the latter at a sight-reading performance.

The annual May Festival was the climactic experience of the year when again the Chorus was fortunate to have Thor Johnson as its guest conductor, performing Haydn's "The Seasons." Dr. Hosmer thrilled the audience once more with her conducting of the "King David."

Officers of the Chorus this year were Pete Bagley, President, Richard Carter, Vice-President, Maria Amodeo, Secretary, Norman Allen, Treasurer and Hannah Wilkins, Historian.

GIRLS TRIO

COLLEGE CHOIR

The College Choir consists of about seventy female voices; it is devoted to the study of fine choral music.

Under its director, Mr. Robert Reinert, the group has gained experience in ensemble singing and has added new pieces to the choir repertoire. Regular weekly rehearsals are held on Wednesday afternoon for a two hour period. While membership in the choir is required of all students in the Music Supervisors Course, provided they are not participating in another musical organization, it is also open to other girls who have an interest in singing.

Perhaps the time when the College Choir is most appreciated by the student body is just before Christmas vacation when the choir does its share of fanning the Yuletide spirit with the singing of Christmas Carols in the halls. In addition to that, the Choir presents its spring program in assembly.

PHOENIX CLUB

The Phoenix Club, the oldest organization in the Crane Department, was founded by Julia E. Crane. In the early days of Phoenix Club the personnel of the group was new each year like the mythical bird, the Phoenix, which renewed itself every five hundred years from the ashes of the old Phoenix.

The group now consists of forty-five girls under the direction of Miss Mary English. It performed in Atlantic City in early March for the Eastern Division of the Music Educators National Conference. To help defray expenses of the trip, the girls conducted two money-making projects. The first of these was the presentation of a concert in November in collaboration with Mr. Richard Griffith, baritone soloist. In January, with the cooperation of Dr. Samuel Spurbeck, they were able to sell pages from an eighteenth century manuscript, thus adding to the fund. Performing again on April 11, Phoenix Club presented Dohnanyi's "Stabat Mater," a cantata for double chorus of women's voices.

The officers for this year were: Anne Bowers, President, Eunice Eckler, Vice-President, and Toby Cerasoli, Secretary-Treasurer.

COLLEGIATES

Collegiate Singers again had an interesting musical year under the direction of Mr. Brock McElheran. Monday evenings found the forty voice choir rehearsing for the two annual concerts which were presented on November 8 and May 2. At these concerts, the best in choral literature, ranging from the fifteenth century to present time, was sung.

The officers for the 1956-1957 year were: Evelyn Batchelor, President; Allen Mills, Vice-President; and Marilyn Warner, Secretary-Treasurer.

COLLEGE BAND

College Band has been an organization of the Crane Department for many years. Membership is open to all Crane and Elementary students who play band instruments. The group rehearses four hours a week under the direction of Mr. Willard Musser at which time it plays concert music and marches. Mr. Musser gives information on backgrounds of arrangers and aids students who are studying conducting by letting them conduct and work with the band. College Band is a non-performing organization; however, it has played for basketball games where it was well received.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Potsdam Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Maurice Baritaud, opened its season on November 8, in a joint concert with Collegiate Singers. In this concert, the orchestra played the Symphony No. 1 by Shostakovich and "Overture to Oberon" by Von Weber. Featured was Mr. Edward Brombach as soloist in the "Cello Concerto in C" by Stamitz.

In the Annual Christmas Concert, the orchestra very ably accompanied Crane Chorus in Arthur Honegger's "King David" under the leadership of Dr. Helen Hosmer.

In the second semester, the orchestra performed in the Concerto Program on February 24, and it gave a Spring Concert on April 28.

SYMPHONIC BAND

Perhaps the instrumental highlight of the year was the joint tour of the Symphonic Band and Wind and Percussion Ensemble. The groups played throughout central New York State featuring compositions of the calibre of "Toccata and Fugue" by Frescobaldi and Hindemith's "Symphony in B flat." The final concert was given at the New York State Music Association's annual conference.

Mr. Harry Phillips conducts Symphonic Band, a group of seventy musicians. Wind and Percussion Ensemble, a group of forty musicians is conducted by Mr. Willard Musser. The ranks of both groups are filled by audition with noticeable results.

Men's Glee Club was organized some years ago by Dr. Horace Bowman. The group was composed entirely of members of the Crane Department and toured New York State singing at assemblies of several schools and giving evening concerts for the community.

The group, now under the direction of Mr. Richard Griffith, numbers between thirty-five and forty members and has given two concerts this past year.

MUSIC EDUCATORS' NATIONAL CONFERENCE

M.E.N.C. student chapter No. 3 at Potsdam is the largest student chapter of its kind in the country, with the membership exceeding 280 this year. It has sponsored workshop programs by outstanding music educators such as Dr. Gladys Andrews, Dr. Harry Robert Wilson, and most recently, Dr. Wright of Toronto, Canada.

A few years ago, M.E.N.C. established a tradition at Potsdam—an annual sight singing performance of a major work for chorus and orchestra. The Faure "Requiem" set the precedent in 1955, followed by the Mozart "Requiem" in 1956, and this year a peak was reached when the Bach "Mass in B Minor" was performed with Dr. Hosmer conducting.

The officers for 1956-1957 are president, Evelyn Batchelor; vice-president, Richard Carter; secretary, Susan Smykla; treasurer, Rosemary Joyce. The faculty advisor is Miss Mary English.

Their organization, consisting of two representatives from each sorority, manages to keep itself quite busy. Loreli Ball can be attributed to the sponsoring of I.S.C. It determines sorority standards and policy, furthers good will among the sororities and handles any problems which might arise. Its duties are the supervision of sorority rushing and pledging. It also presents a scholastic trophy to the sorority having the highest semester average.

INTER FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Three representatives from each fraternity make up the Inter Fraternity Council. The organization's goals are to promote close cooperation between fraternities and solve any inter fraternity problems which might arise. This year's president was J. Ronald Buschmeyer.

ALPHA DELTA

This year Alpha maintained its usual busy schedule of activities. Among the highlights were: Parents' Weekend, when the Alphas entertained their parents at an open house, dinner and coffee hour; the open-house, "Frosty Frolics"; Ice Carnival centered around a Grecian theme; work week, during which the girls earned money for house improvements, doing anything from shining shoes to painting houses; exchange dinners, bridge parties, and coffee hours with social fraternities and sororities and the annual sorority weekend, "Deep Purple."

The Alpha House, formerly the Lockwood home, is situated on Elm Street and can be recognized by its fieldstone facing. It now has a television set. The Alphas proudly wear their royal purple and white jackets.

AGONIAN

The members of the Agonian sorority are recognized on campus by their white blazers and the chapter house at 11 Pierrepont Avenue by its identifying anchor. The gold, blue and white banner waved proudly as the "Uss Ago" was launched for the '56-'57 cruise with house improvements insuring its sturdiness in all weather.

Besides the usual functions with Potsdam and Clarkson fraternities and sororities, the Agos welcomed to their calendar the addition of "Family Weekend" in October which was followed by the "Fabulous Fifties" open house. Twelve new members were entered on the log during fall rushing and were just in time for the Christmas party sponsored by I.S.C. attended by second graders of the Campus School.

Between semesters Alumnae Chapters were set up all over New York State for the purpose of furthering sisterhood and meeting "Old Agos" again. By September, four Alumnae Chapters will be actively operating. During Ice Carnival, the Agos took a "Flight to Paradise" winning first places in stunt competition and women's skating races. Continuing a long standing tradition at freshman teas, rush parties, and open houses, the "Four Beats" continued to present music in the Ago manner.

Following the formal initiation of the spring pledge class, the annual spring weekend was held at the Norwood Inn, bringing to a close the social agenda. The climax of the year, especially for seniors, was the early morning annual Senior Breakfast when we bid farewell to Ago and college days.

PHI KAPPA PI

Phi Kappa Pi greeted '56-'57 by moving into their new home at 58 Elm St., with the Phi K sisters crating and carrying all their earthly possessions to their "home with possibilities." Combining paint, paper, hammers, nails and general enthusiasm, they worked together improving conditions inside and out, and now enjoy the homey atmosphere.

October was the most eventful month in that it marked the 50th Anniversary of the organization on campus with many alumnae coming back to join the celebration.

Phi K has, in addition, been busy with other social functions such as coffee hours, exchange dinners, Ice Carnival Stunt and Statue, Rush parties, Children's Easter Party, Spring Weekend, and the Annual Alumni Honorary members picnic.

Some of the purposes of Phi Kappa Pi members are to strive toward improving oneself scholastically and socially, and to show friendliness and lend a helping hand towards each sister and schoolmate. Phi K's are seen on campus combining grey and gold jackets with a friendly smile.

Teresa Hammond

Zeta Gamma Sigma sorority was formed in the spring of 1955. Feeling that a fourth sorority was necessary to the growing campus, a group of girls met for the purpose of forming one.

Zeta's first meeting was held March 17, 1955 under the sponsorship of Intersorority Council, Dean Warfel and a special advisory board. At the intersorority picnic, May 22, 1955, the sorority presented its name, colors, pin and crest.

Fall 1955 marked the beginning of an exciting first full year of sorority activities for Zeta. The sorority approaches the close of a second full year with deep regrets for the death of Theresa Hammond, sorority member who died on February 9, 1957. However, Zeta looks forward to returning next fall when the group will be using University Hall as its first real home.

In accordance with Delta Kappa tradition, registration is no sooner over than auditions and rehearsals begin. The first and primary year's event was the production of the eleventh annual DK Original Musical Comedy, "Look Out Bachelors," with the story centered around three New York bachelors. The DK's scripted and composed until the wee hours. With the growing anthology of original tunes on hand a spring Song Fest to include songs from past DK shows was planned, sung by the fraternity and assorted young ladies. From one endeavor to another . . . This year's DK participation in Ice Carnival rated a second place award for the stunt "Swiss Music Box."

On the lighter side, one vic party a month was averaged plus Freshmen Party and three weekends. The Junior Prom Weekend and Ice Carnival Weekend follow similar patterns; a vic party Friday night, a house-cleaning party Saturday afternoon and a cocktail party before the formal. Concluding the social calendar was the Spring Party, a full day event, including the banquet, a cocktail hour, with a formal dance completing the evening.

The school year 1956-57 proved to be an eventful one for the men of Psi Phi. Their acquisition of a new home fulfilled many years of working and planning, and they immediately began repairing and decorating their new residence. Initial guests were the freshman, for whom the annual Freshmen Smoker was held.

Execution of plans for the Psi Phi Production were put into operation with a scenario of "South Pacific" being chosen as the musical offering, and the play "Wings in the Dark" constituting the dramatic part of this successful undertaking. Their next efforts were concentrated on the upcoming Christmas season. In addition to the yearly Christmas Party Psi Phi added to the general yuletide spirit by caroling for the college and the community.

With the house successfully renovated, attention was turned to greater social participation; Ice Carnival, weekend parties, splash parties, coffee hours. Newly initiated was the monthly date night in which all the members and their dates went out as a group.

New pledges, May Festival, and of course the annual Spring Formal climaxed a memorable year for Psi Phi Fraternity.

BLACKFRIARS

Blackfriars, the honorary dramatic society, takes its name from the Blackfriar Theatre of the sixteenth century. It was the forerunner of British and American theatres.

The Blackfriar players were progressive in their ideas. They endeavored to give the public the best performance they could produce. It is this aim that contemporary Blackfriars hopes to attain.

Membership is open to those who demonstrate their interest and willingness by participating in various capacities.

Blackfriars' most important production each year is that given at May Festival. Under the more than capable direction of Mr. Alfred O. Wilkinson, Jean Anouilh's "Thieves' Carnival" was presented on May 11th to an appreciative audience.

PHI SIGMA MU

The honorary fraternity in music education was organized at Potsdam in 1929 and is the Zeta chapter of the national organization. An academic average of 3.00 plus outstanding characteristics in the field of music education are required of prospective members.

Well-known on campus for its sponsoring of the annual Pops Concert, Phi Sigma Mu once again presented its highlight in an entertaining manner this time featuring a faculty orchestra with a Greenwich Village theme. Money raised went largely into the scholarship fund which provided for four half-tuition scholarships.

Another honor was awarded to the fraternity by virtue of being the host chapter for the Phi Sigma Mu national convention. Under the leadership of Susan Smykla as president and Miss Helen King, advisor, the fraternity can be assured that its job was well done.

JUNIOR PROM

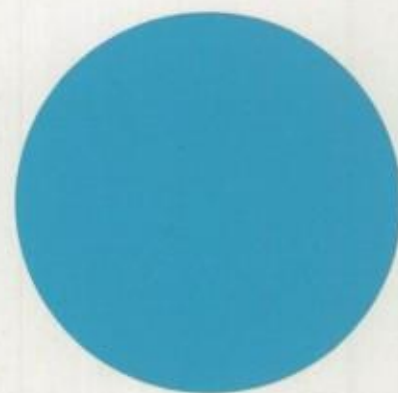

Sparkling, gay lights focused on Potsdam's social highlight on November 17, the Junior Premiere! That evening all roads led to the Clarkson Gym where the Junior Classes presented their Premiere amid potted palms, blazing marquees, and romantic silhouettes all softly lit by the multi-colored stars twinkling from above.

In this sophisticated atmosphere, three hundred couples danced from 10 to 2 to the music of Tommy Tucker and his orchestra.

At midnight, all eyes turned to the regal purple velvet and pink satin throne in the center of the floor as electric suspense flowed from couple to couple. Then the Queen of the Junior Class, Gail Roach, ascended the throne. She was attended by a stately court—Barbara Abele, Janice Cosselman, Jackie Dyke and Mary Livingston.

All good things must come to an end, however, and at two the Premiere faded into our realm of memories.

Officers: R. BROWN, V. Pres., B. HULL, Pres., S. BADGER, Treas., A. GIOVANNONE, Sec.
